Author Matthew Shannon Releases New Book “The Book of Prayers for the Seasons in Life”

Virginia Beach, VA. (November 26, 2013)-- Author Matthew Shannon’s soul-igniting creation, “The Book of Prayers for the Seasons in Life,” (published by Ignite Your Core Publishing Company) is a book written with the ordinary person in mind, with the ability to draw the reader to tap into the power of God through prayer.

“On any given day or moment, our lives can change dramatically,” says author Rev. Shannon. “We can be depressed in one moment and joyous the next moment. When we experience the changes in life or the seasons in life, we need to guard ourselves with prayer. Prayer is like the engine that starts the car in our relationship with God.”

The Book of Prayers for the Seasons in Life includes model prayers, such as, The Lord’s Prayer and Jesus’ Prayers in the Gospel of St. John. Also, it includes prayers for special occasions, prayers for the feelings of rejection and loneliness, and prayers for the human body and humankind.

Prayer works and it changes things. The Word of God declares in James 5:16 that the effectual prayers of the righteous person avail much. When we pray to God, God listens and God responds. At the end of this book, the reader should know how to create their own prayer to God for the season that they are in.
